

CHOOSING
the right agent is

KEY
to Selling Your Home

I'm following up on my recent message about your home sale. Have you had time to consider my offer?

When listing your house for a second time, selecting the right agent is crucial!

I have analyzed your home's ability to sell in this market and am confident that with my proven system for marketing expired listings, I can sell your home for a good price by ensuring that it receives as much attention as a brand new listing.

If you have any specific questions about my professional background or marketing strategies, I'd be happy to answer them for you. People who list their homes for sale with me receive individual attention and a clearly outlined sales strategy, customized to their home.

Give me a call today so we can put together a plan of action for your home sale.
